

I am outraged that the FCC is not using its regulatory power to stop the airing of "Stolen Honor", which is nothing more than an anti-Kerry, negative campaign ad. I am a law abiding, tax paying citizen and feel that the actions of Sinclair Broadcasting are a threat to the dignity of our democracy. This is a consequence of media consolidation which has gone too far. I expect the FCC to be held accountable for strengthening and upholding media ownership rules.